

96. ATA - Historical Markers

Points: 500

They're Everywhere

Between Wisconsin and Michigan there are nearly 1,000 official state historical markers. Each one tells a story about it's state's rich heritage. The observant rally rider could easily pad their points total with the occasional historical near by bonus locations. I know of one bonus where there at 4 historical markers within a stones throw. Now I'm talking about Official State Historical markers ONLY identified by the small crest at the top saying "Wisconsin Official Marker" or "Michigan Historic Site" with the image of a beaver or wolverine. I'll even provided photos for your reference;
